

Good afternoon all...

Because of Hurricane Gordon, last night's Council meeting was rescheduled to Friday, 5:30 pm, at city hall. The public budget hearing will be conducted early in the meeting.

Budget Hearing, Friday, 09/07/18, (scroll down) 5:30

What you need to know...

- (1) Citizens will be given a reasonable amount of time to comment on the proposed FY19 budget;
- (2) It's not a Q&A format; your comments only;
- (3) The updated documents below will likely help you prepare your comments;
- (4) Let your council member know how you feel before the FY19 budget vote, not after;
- (5) Council will vote on the FY19 budget Friday, September 14, 1:30, at city hall.

Updated documents:

- FY19 Combined Funds Statements & historical
- FY19 Budget, by Department & historical
- FY19 Budgeted vs Actuals, Revenue only & historical
- FY19 Proposed Capital Projects, FY19

Previously published:

- FY17 CAFR/Audit \(Comprehensive Annual Financial Report\)
- Previous CAFRs/Audits
- Energy Costs, FY18 vs FY17
- Mills Levied, historical

- Legal Debt Margin, historical

NOTE: The FY19 budget will be adopted at a special Council meeting on Friday, September 14, 1:30 pm, at city hall.

Also, the administration and council will conduct two (2) workshops this week related to the Point Cadet Waterfront and related areas development that's being contemplated by the Mayor. The first workshop will be tomorrow/Thursday, September 6, 1:30, at city hall. Ann Breen and Dick Rigby of The Waterfront Center, Washington D.C. will facilitate discussion of ideas and visions that anyone in the assembly may have for Biloxi's Waterfront at Point Cadet, as well as related areas for context, and specifically about the highest and best use of the vacant Point Cadet Property held by the state and city.

The second workshop, Friday, September 7, 10:00, at city hall, is when Breen and Rigby will summarize their observations from the past two days and present them to the workshop group for more discussion. They will also outline a potential National Waterfront Conference in Biloxi in late 2018.

Finally, mark your calendar to attend the next Ward 5 meeting, Wednesday, September 26, 6:30 pm, at the Donal Snyder Recreation Center, son Pass Road.
