

Ward 5 eblast

Sunday, November 14, 2021

The holiday season is upon us! As you pause and reflect on what you are thankful for and the blessing bestowed upon you, consider a random act of kindness or two for those less fortunate. I've listed a few thoughts near the end of this eblast.

White House Hotel, Biloxi, 1920s; current site of... well, it's still there! 😊

Holiday acts of kindness... Think about it...

In the past, some of you might have anonymously paid off the Christmas lay away balance for a Walmart customer. I learned yesterday that Walmart is no longer permits that... but you have other options!

Local stores may have Angel Trees; just look at the items listed on the tree (child's name, age, and present request) and pick one to pay for.

Gulf Coast Rescue Mission (in Ward 5, 2750 Mission Lane, (228) 388-3884) can always use donations of gently used clothes, toiletries, and, particularly at this time of the year, canned food items associated with Thanksgiving and Christmas meals (ham, turkey).

This year, I'm working with the Biloxi Housing Authority (BHA) to "clear" the debt of senior citizen residents who reside at Cadet Point Senior Village, Seashore Oaks, or Gulf Shore Villas in Biloxi. BHA is compiling a list of eligible senior residents, who remain anonymous, and their amount of debt. I'll share more details with you, when it becomes available.

Edgewater Park Property Owners Association...

A word of thanks to EPPOA for inviting me to sit in at this week's meeting to learn about the proposed RV park on the old Breakers property, just west of Grande View Drive, on Highway 90. The developer's RV proposal is on this week's Planning Commission agenda. I'm happy to attend homeowners' meetings in Ward 5 if invited and my schedule permits.
