

Ward 5 eblast

Saturday, January 21, 2023

If you reside in Ward 5, Biloxi, your state representative is the Honorable Kevin Felsher and your state senator is the Honorable Joel Carter. I've placed links (below, under Bits & Pieces) to their facebook pages in case you'd like to keep up with state legislative news, now that the legislative session has begun.

History & Genealogy, Biloxi Library...

The Local History and Genealogy Department is available for patrons who would like to research their family's history! The Department is located in the downtown Biloxi Library on Howard Avenue. Resources range from The Sun Herald newspaper on microfilm, city directories for the Mississippi Gulf Coast, family files, and more. Patrons can also use the Ancestry Library edition for free from Local History computers. Contact the Local History Department, (228) 435-4613 if you have any questions.

Mississippi Sound Coalition...

Why this is significant \(WLOX\)

Judge Guirola ruled earlier this week in favor of the Mississippi Sound Coalition plaintiffs (led by City of Biloxi and Harrison County Supervisors) to require the Corps of Engineers to consult with National Marine Fisheries about mitigation actions to take before opening the Bonnet Carre Spillway.
