City budget FY2025...

The budgeting cycle for fiscal year 2025 will begin in mid-July when the city administration presents a proposed budget for review by the city council. A series of budget workshops will ensue, typically after regularly scheduled council meetings. These workshops are streamed live (as are council meetings) and archived for future viewing by the public. I'll post links to the videos and documents, as I've done in the past, in my eblasts. Past budget workshops/documents are found at my website, Useful Links. A series of employee pay workshops recently concluded... April May June
