

The John and Patty Caranna Community Service Award and Mary Lou Buchanan Service Awards' Nomination Criteria.

The Harrison County TRIAD/SALT Council presents two community service accolades to pay tribute to its original charter members for their outstanding volunteerism.

- The first award, the John and Patty Caranna Community Service Award, honors John and Patty Caranna, who devoted a significant portion of their lives to helping others in our community.
- The second award, the Mary Lou Buchanan Service Award, recognizes Mary Lou Buchanan for her exceptional advocacy work in collaborating with law enforcement agencies to ensure the safety and well-being of seniors in both Harrison County and the State as a whole.

Each year, we have the privilege of recognizing and acknowledging individuals and organizations, who generously dedicate their time and demonstrate unwavering dedication to making extraordinary contributions in Harrison County. These exceptional individuals enthusiastically volunteer and create a positive impact. We are incredibly grateful for their unwavering commitment and inspiring influence on our community.
